

Appointment of Club Professional

Following a thorough interview and selection process, involving a total of 67 applications, which produced a short-list of 15 for interview and finally a short-list of 3 for final interviews, the Club are delighted to announce that Mr Andrew Lancaster has accepted the position of Club Professional at Fairhaven Golf Club.

Andrew, currently the Club Professional at Lytham Green Drive Golf Club, will be known to most members, as he will be to many golfers on the Fylde. He brings to the Club a vast amount of experience as Golf Professional both in the management of a golf shop and golf tuition, for which he is highly regarded.

Andrew started his Professional golf career in 1985 as an Assistant at Gog Magog Golf Club, before moving to Royal Lytham & St Annes Golf Club in 1987. In 1992 he was appointed as the Golf Professional at Lytham Green Drive Golf Club.

Andrew is most excited at moving to Fairhaven and is looking forward to providing the members with a first class service both within the shop and in the expert tuition he is able to provide.

Andrew is an extremely experienced and enthusiastic golf coach, who is continually developing his own coaching skills. He will also provide a well stocked shop which will accommodate the needs of all, as well as a bespoke club fitting service.
